

1989

Difficult Legacies

& New Hegemonies

90

in Eastern Europe

91

05.11.

EuropaPunktBremen
18:00 Uhr

Round Table Discussion with
Andrzej Leder & Magdalena Grabowska
(Polish Academy of Sciences) about the taboos
and forgotten aspects of the 1989's revolution in Poland.

06.11.

Haus der Wissenschaft
9:00 - 17:00 Uhr

Interdisciplinary Workshop. Key Note by Andrzej Leder: "Sleepwalking the Revolution.
Poland 1939-1956"
Detailed programme under cutit.org/vI2dw
Contact: nuhn@uni-bremen.de

Tuesday, 05 November 2019

EuropaPunktBremen

Carl-Ronning-Strasse 2, Bremen

Round Table Discussion with Andrzej Leder and Magdalena Grabowska (Polish Academy of Sciences) about the taboos and forgotten aspects of the 1989's revolution in Poland.

Wednesday, 06 November 2019

Haus der Wissenschaft

Sandstrasse 4/5, Bremen

9.00 – 9.45

Keynote address by Andrzej Leder (Polish Academy of Sciences) Sleepwalking the Revolution. The Period 1939-1956 in Poland and its Moral and Political Consequences

9.45-10.00 Discussion

10.00-10.30 Coffee break

Panel 1 Transformation and (Dis)Continuities

Chair: Magdalena Waligórska (Bremen)

10.30-11.05

Anna Safuta, University of Bremen Women, Peripherally White Migrants, and the Familialist State: Elderly care as a case study of the gendered and nationalist continuities of (post) -transformation politics in Poland

11.05-11.40

Boris Popivanov, Sofia University Dismantling the Anti-Fascist Hegemonic Discourse: The Bulgarian Experience since 1989 in a Regional Context

11.40-12.15

Alexander Svyetlov, Public Institute of Historical Memory, Kyiv

Ukraine's Path dependencies and the Emergence of New political Agencies

12.15 -13.45 Lunch break

Panel 2 The Others and the Self: Exploring the Historical Blind Spots

Chair: Simon Lewis (Potsdam)

13.45-14.20

Joanna B. Michlic, Institute for Advanced Studies University College London Culture Wars over the Memorialization of the Holocaust in Poland since 1989: the Role of National Symbols.

14.20-14.55

Magdalena Waligórska, University of Bremen, Heritage of Antisemitism in the Solidarity Movement

14.55-15.30

Ulrike Huhn, University of Bremen, Burden or Opportunity? Negotiating Jewish Identities within the Scientific Communities in late Soviet Ukraine and Beyond

15.30-16.00 Coffee break

Panel 3 Transformation in the Urban Context

Chair: Mareike zum Felde (Bremen)

16.00-16.35

Nick Wetschel, Institute of Saxon History and Cultural Anthropology Is Dresden prepared for the new citizens? –Local negotiations of refugee reception in an East German city after 1989/90

16.35-17.10

Jacob Nuhn, University of Bremen, On the Margins? Alternative Milieus in the Urban Landscape of Dresden and Wrocław before and after 1989